TOLLING OF THE BELL

LIGHTING OF THE CANDLES

CALL TO WORSHIP (Responsive – Leader; People)

based on Galatians 5, Psalm 77

We have been called to freedom, but not to bite and devour one another.

Let's take care not to do that.

Let us instead be guided by the Spirit of God, and practice love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

These will be the hallmarks of our freedom.

God's way is holiness.

Our way shall be holiness, too. It is for this we have been set free.

RAISING THE COVENANT (Unison)

We who are called of God into this Christian community covenant together; to seek to know the will of God, to experience the joy and struggle of discipleship, to proclaim in word and deed the love of Christ, and to work for peace and justice among all people. We trust God's promise of grace and forgiveness and the presence of the Holy Spirit in our trials and rejoicing.

RITUAL OF APPROACH

We Share Our Stories Before God

Silence for Personal Confession

Prayer of Confession (Unison)

Powerful God, in Jesus you have sought to set us free, and by the example of your Child we will express our freedom. We know there have been times when we have thought that, because others are different from us – younger, older, of different politics, mindset, culture, race, or gender – therefore we didn't need to take them seriously. In such times we have found ourselves enslaved by the temptations of this world. Break these chains, O God. Forgive us our shortsightedness and indifference. Remake us, to be new in your Spirit. Make us fruitful in your Word. Give strength to all who seek you, and pour into our souls the desire to find you through Jesus our Savior and Guide, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God in glory everlasting. Amen.

Words of Assurance

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Benton Nicholas Prange

Welcome

They were bringing children to Jesus that he might touch them; and the disciples rebuked them. But when Jesus saw it, he was indignant, and said to them,

“Let the children come to me, do not hinder them; for to such belongs the realm of God. Truly I say to you, whoever does not receive the realm of God like a child shall not enter it.”

Address

This is the water of baptism. Out of this water we rise with new life, forgiven of sin and one in Christ, members of Christ’s body.

POSTLUDE

Lefébure-Wély

Today, we celebrate the baptism of Benton Nicholas Prange (b. November 5, 2021), son of Phil & Erin and Warner's little brother. Benton and his family are joined at the font by Ellen & Patrick Reed, his godparents.

The Dogwood Cross and Jesse Tree displayed in the northwest corner of the sanctuary were placed there in joyful memory of the life and ministry of Robert McCoy who was celebrated yesterday by his family and loved ones. Bob, along with his friend church member Bob Woodsmall, fashioned the Dogwood Cross to be part of our Lent and Easter observances; it is based on the Legend of the Dogwood. Bob designed the Jesse Tree and worked out the details of its construction, in 2010. Ornaments on the tree were crafted by Bob and other church members through 2016, recalling Bible stories and honoring biblical figures foreshadowing the birth of Christ. The Jesse Tree itself is a Christian tradition dating from medieval times which illustrates a metaphor in Isaiah 11:1, in which a dead tree stump, symbolizing the lineage of King David cut off at the roots, sprouts unexpectedly again by God's grace in the person of a Messiah.

Our Second Summer of Conversations begins...

A group of newly trained church leaders has assembled their call lists for this year's Summer of Conversations - 30-minute, one-on-one conversations with other church members and newcomers over coffee, tea, either in person, by telephone, or using a virtual medium (Zoom, Facetime, Skype, etc.).

The intent is simple – have a conversation, listen to one another about what is important to each of you, talk about where you find joy or sense your passion for life and ministry, and dare to dream a little about what you wish you or your church could accomplish together.

If you receive an invitation to have a Conversation, please accept it as an opportunity to get to know someone in your faith community better. There is no agenda behind a Conversation. It is meant to be a time to listen and share, allow yourself to get to know someone new at First Church (or if not new, then more deeply), and perhaps to continue the practice of intentionally getting to know others. Developing the art of one-on-one conversation at First Church is one of the most radical things we do as a community. Who knows where listening to one another and the movement of God’s Spirit might lead?

Of course, some may - for whatever reason - elect not to participate. That’s OK. Just let the pastor know.
