*RAISING THE COVENANT Covenant of 1977

We who are called of God into this Christian community covenant together: to seek to know the will of God, to experience the joy and struggle of discipleship, to proclaim in word and deed the love of Christ, and to work for peace and justice among all people. We trust God's promise of grace and forgiveness and the presence of the Holy Spirit in our trials and rejoicing.

*GATHERING HYMN God of the Women Carolyn Winfrey Gillette

(Tune: SLANE)

God of the women who answered your call,
trusting your promise, giving their all,
women like Hagar and Hannah and Ruth___
give us their courage to live in your truth.

God of the women long put to the test,
left out of stories, forgotten, oppressed,
quietly asking: "Who smiled at my birth?" ___
in Jesus' dying you show us our worth.

O God of Phoebe and ministers all,
may we be joyful in answering your call.
Give us the strength of your Spirit so near___
that we may share in your ministry here.

RITUAL OF APPROACH

We Bring Our Stories Before God

Prayer of Confession (Unison)

God, we often find it difficult to navigate life. We'll feel as if we must choose mercy or justice, silence or speaking, grace or retribution. We struggle to know how we should respond to many situations: is this a time for mercy and understanding, we wonder, or is this a time for anger in the service of justice? Sometimes we tell ourselves that we are being merciful when really we are avoiding discomfort. Sometimes we tell ourselves that we are being just when really we are causing harm. Forgive us for these blunders, usually caused by our desire to see ourselves in the best possible light. Help us to approach our circumstances with wisdom, and to engage based on what's needed and not on what's easy. Amen.

Silence for Personal Confession

Words of Assurance

ANTHEM

Put Your Hand in the Hand

Gene MacLellan

Put your hand in the hand of the man who stilled the water
Put your hand in the hand of the man who calmed the sea
Take a look at yourself and you can look at others differently
By puttin' your hand in the hand of the man from Galilee

Every time I look into the Holy Book I want to tremble (tremble)
Or when I read about the part where the carpenter cleared the temple (temple)
For the buyers and the sellers were no different fellas than what I profess to be
And it causes me shame to know we're not the people we should be

So, put your hand in the hand of the man who stilled the water
Put your hand in the hand of the man who calmed the sea
Take a look at yourself and you can look at others differently
By puttin' your hand in the hand of the man from Galilee

MESSAGE OF THE DAY

"Risking Righteous Anger"

Rev. David Denoon, Pastor

WE OFFER OF OURSELVES

Invitation

**Song of Praise*

Doxology

Tune: OLD 100TH

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow!
Praise God, all creatures here below!
Praise God, above you heavenly host:
Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

**Prayer of Dedication (Unison)*

To your house the Christ came, O God, and found there hypocrisy and falsehood. Now here we are, each of us a temple to you with gifts toward your work. We pray that the gifts may be worthy of your blessing. For we know ourselves, but we also seek your will. Amen.

SACRAMENT OF CHRIST'S TABLE

Setting composed by Zipporah Lee, 2014

Entrance to the Table (Responsive – Celebrant; People)

It feels like a new beginning, ... and a wide, accepting love.

We embrace fully that all are welcome to partake of this meal, given to us in the love of Christ.

Prayer (Unison)

Divine Spirit, we thank you most gladly. You walk beside us every moment in love and light, inviting us to live out the life for which we are meant. You have taught us justice and peace. You sustain us in our trials and rejoicing. You are there when we seek you and desire your presence in this place or wherever we go. We are ever so thankful for the transformation we experience in ourselves because of the love of Christ, given to us through his life, death, and resurrection. We ask you to bless this bread and cup of which we will partake. Through it, make us the body of Christ, one with another and with God's entire creation. May this meal be the beginning of our renewed vision of a healing world. Amen.

Blessing of the Elements (including Prayer of Our Savior in Unison)

Lord, make us instruments of your peace.

We remember on the night when Jesus and his disciples shared this same meal...

Let us sow love, faith, light, joy, and hope.

Jesus took the bread, gave thanks, and shared it with his disciples saying.

This is my body, broken for you. Take, eat, and remember me.

Grant that we may not so much seek as we find...

In the same way, he took the cup, gave thanks, and shared it with his disciples saying: This is the cup of covenant, poured out for all people.

Take, drink, and remember me.

For it is in giving that we receive, in seeking to understand that we have understood...

United in the Spirit, let us pray in words like those Christ our Savior has taught:

Our Mother in heaven, make your name holy. Reveal your love, and teach us your way. Make earth alike with heaven. Provide bread for today, so that we do not worry about tomorrow. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. Keep us from things that would keep us from you, but deliver us from the evil one. For here is your love: where power and glory are shared, now and forever. Amen.

Distribution of the Elements

Communion is served in the pews, first the bread and then the cup. The bread is gluten-free.

Wine is white; grape juice is red. Each is consumed at the indication of the Pastor, unless this presents a hardship for the individual.

Sending from the Table

We give thanks for the refreshment at your table that we have received, loving and treasured God.

For Christ has no body but ours, no hands and no feet on earth but ours; ours are the eyes with which God looks with compassion on this world.

Ours are the feet with which he walks to do good. Ours are the hands with which he blesses all the world.

*PARTING HYMN

We Would Be Building
No. 607, vv. 1,3 – New Century Hymnal

Lent Bible Study – Sundays at 11:20 AM

Entering the Passion of Jesus: A Beginner's Guide to Holy Week – By Amy-Jill Levine

During Lent this year we will study Amy-Jill Levine's book Entering the Passion of Jesus, which focuses on the last week of Jesus' life. Every chapter (and every corresponding Sunday service) considers a particular risk that disciples of Jesus face: questionable reputation, righteous anger, challenge, rejection, loss of friends, and temptation. Book discussions begin today in the Inglis Room and continue through April 2nd. If you would like a copy of the book, please contact Halley at halley.kim@firstchurchwg.org.

Bring your preferred party food and beverages. Beer and wine are allowed. Coffee, tea, water and lemonade will be provided. Doors will open at 6:15. The trivia will begin at 7:00. There will be both a silent auction and an oral auction during the evening of competition. In addition, the members of Lady Elect will provide a delicious dessert buffet to “sweeten” the evening.

Registration forms are available on the table in the narthex or register on our website at www.firstchurchwg.org/benevolence-giving. We look forward to our joint effort at raising money to continue our well-established habit of proclaiming in deed, the love of Christ. ### Habitat for Humanity Update

Back in 1995, St Louis UCC churches assembled an ad hoc group to work with Habitat for Humanity. During the 28-year period since this group of 13 churches has been responsible for 27 affordable homes. Unfortunately, Covid and supply chain issues during the last 3 years have slowed progress. Those problems are now pretty much behind us, and we are ready to resume new construction.

In order to build these homes, Habitat requires us to provide dollars as well as sweat equity. First Church makes a sizable contribution from our Benevolence funds. In addition, Samuel UCC in Clayton is once again hosting a St. Patrick's dinner, this year on Saturday March 4. $20 gets you a Corned Beef dinner with all the trimmings and a choice desert. Every cent raised goes directly to our Habitat effort to provide an affordable home for a deserving family. See me for tickets.

Our UCC group will begin working on our 2023 home in the Look Away Summit neighborhood south of the Chain of Rocks bridge, beginning in March and then through the summer and fall. Once I have a specific date, I will put out a call for workers.

Please consider supporting this project that builds self-reliance as well as stable communities through affordable housing.

Phil Shoulberg
