

Welcome!

First Congregational Church
of Webster Groves United Church of Christ

Seek Christ in each. Serve God in all.

SEPTEMBER 24, 2023

LAST
WILL BE FIRST,
AND THE

MATTHEW 20:16, ESV

We respond to God’s call by welcoming everyone regardless of ability, age, ethnicity, race, gender identity, sexual orientation or socio-economic background.

To proclaim in word and deed the love of Christ, we affirm that all may share in the full life, ministry, fellowship, responsibilities and blessings of our congregation.

No matter who you are or where you are on life’s journey, you are welcome here.

Order of Worship

*An asterisk (*) indicates that worshipers are invited to stand in body or in spirit.*

PRELUDE Morning Has Broken Traditional Irish Canterbury Bells arr. Michael W. Joy

WELCOME Joan Musbach, Liturgist
At this time, we invite you to complete an entry in the Friendship Booklet in your pew and to silence the ringer on any cellular device you may have with you.

TOLLING OF THE BELL

LIGHTING OF THE CANDLES

CALL TO WORSHIP (Responsive – Leader; People) based on Psalm 145
Let us extol our God and the One who rules over us.

Great is our God and greatly to be praised.

The holy One is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

Our mouths will speak the praise of the holy One. Let all creation bless God's holy name for ever and ever.

*RAISING THE COVENANT Covenant of 1977

We who are called of God into this Christian community covenant together: to seek to know the will of God, to experience the joy and struggle of discipleship, to proclaim in word and deed the love of Christ, and to work for peace and justice among all people. We trust God's promise of grace and forgiveness and the presence of the Holy Spirit in our trials and rejoicing.

*GATHERING HYMN God of Grace H. E. Fosdick
No. 436, vv. 1,3,5 – New Century Hymnal

RITUAL OF APPROACH

Invitation (Responsive) based on Philippians 1:21-24

To us as the body of Christ, living is blessing and dying also is gain.

We are hard pressed between being heaven-focused only so that we are with Christ, which seems preferable...

Or to remain in the flesh – earth-focused – which is more necessary for us with one another. If we are to live an earthly existence, that means fruitful labor for us.

So, let us confess the unfruitful ways of our earthly selves and thus live harmoniously as spiritual selves also.

Prayer of Confession (Unison)

Merciful God, the times in which we live abound with voices and opinions that seem unwilling to compromise their positions or expectations. What are you thinking, through all this? What does it mean for us to be faithful? Is compromise defeat, or is it the opening of one heart to another? We long for certainty. We ache to know your truth. But the paths down which you guide us seem anything but certain. And the faith you demand seems futile to us when it does not lead us where we had hoped to go. Be patient with us, we pray, and love us. Shed your grace. Enlighten our hearts. We want to follow your will, to live in your hope. And toward these goals, in Christ's name we pray. Amen.

Silence for Personal Confessions

Words of Assurance (Responsive)

based on Philippians 1:25-26

Let us be convinced of this: that in God's grace we will remain and continue with one another for our mutual progress and joy in faith.

And that we will share abundantly in our life in Christ Jesus whenever we are together. Amen.

**Singing God's Glory*

Glory to God in the Highest

Peruvian melody

The congregation repeats each line of the following after the Leader:

Glory to God! Glory to God! Glory in the highest!

To God be glory forever!

Next, the Leader conducts the congregation in harmonizing the following:

Alleluia! Amen! Alleluia! Amen!

Adult Education – Sunday, October 22
after worship in Memorial Hall
“Peace Place Plans”

Our next Adult Education session will focus on Peace Place, a proposed effort to develop affordable housing for seniors in the heart of Webster Groves. Peace United Church of Christ is working with the Housing Authority of St. Louis County to convert 204 E. Lockwood Ave. into Peace Place. (The church recently moved from that address to the campus of Eden Theological Seminary.)

Pastor Wendy Bruner and a member of the Peace UCC Governing Body will explain:

- how they decided to take on this project rather than just selling their prior home;
- the steps they're following to develop their plans, find partners, and get approvals;
- the architectural renderings of what the new facility will look like;
- what they have learned about affordable housing in Webster Groves (and beyond); and
- how their project might inform and facilitate more affordable housing efforts in Webster Groves.

There will be plenty of opportunity for attendees to ask questions and to find out how they could help the development of additional affordable housing in our City.

Covenant News

September 21–27, 2023

FROM THE PASTOR

Because of You

Live your life... so that... you are standing firm in one spirit, striving side by side

with one mind for the faith of the Good News. (Philippians 1:27)

During the last year, we have taken up the practice of telling “Our Stories Before God,” a feature of our Ritual of Approach which can remind us of mistakes or missteps and guide us into confession. These are often moving reminders of the many ways in which our God changes lives for the better, often in and through our church. I am thankful for how this practice has brought our hearts and lives closer together. This has helped us to be living and working “firm in one spirit, striving side by side.”

There is a lot of faith-filled living and working to do. The church happens because of personal skill and initiative, and because we have recognized needs and had the audacity to try to answer them. And the church happens with the generous financial support of our people. Because of you, our church changes lives.

Gifts to our congregation grow from our appreciation of the lives we touch. Generosity to the church in all its forms comes as an expression of gratitude to God for this beloved community. I hope that you will join me in making a commitment to First Church to give in 2024 in the many ways you are blessed to do.

As you consider ways for you to support the congregation, during much of October and November we all will be asked to think in a particular and prayerful way about the choices we make with our money in support of the church. This period of study and reflection will begin with the acceptance of a budget for next year on October 15 and culminate on Consecration Sunday, November 12. I hope that you will be able to be with us, throughout this time, to hear each other’s stories about our changing lives at First Church and to consider together how our gifts can have positive effects both within and beyond our walls.

God has done and continues to do remarkable things through us and with us – and things that matter in our wider community, too. Gifts to our congregation make this possible. Please, be watching for commitment cards in the mail and online, for your estimate of giving for 2024.

Thank you for walking alongside me as a part of First Congregational Church.

Peace.
