Invitation

Offertory

Song of Praise*

Doxology

Tune: OLD 100TH

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow!

Praise God, all creatures here below!

Praise God, above you heavenly host:

Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Prayer of Dedication (Unison)*

Gracious God, you are a well that does not run dry. You never tire of giving good gifts to your children. And in response, we bring our offerings to be used to support our faith community and to participate in heaven's love and justice work. Bless and multiply these gifts today, and use them for your glory. Amen.

SACRAMENT OF CHRIST'S TABLE

Invitation

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Prayer of Our Savior

tr. Denoon

Our Mother in heaven, make your name holy. Reveal your love, and teach us your way. Make earth alike with heaven. Provide bread for today, so that we do not worry about tomorrow. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. Keep us from things that would keep us from you, but deliver us from the evil one. For here is your love: where power and glory are shared, now and forever. Amen.

Sharing the Story

Fraction

Communion

Communion is served in the pews, first the bread and then the cup. The bread is gluten-free. Wine is white; grape juice is red. Each is consumed at the indication of the Pastor, unless this presents a hardship for the individual.

Prayer after Communion (Unison)

God, our fountain of life, once again you have been faithful to feed us at the feast of love. Though we will surely gather again to celebrate Christ's Table, we know that your gift of Jesus is enough, once and for all. Your forgiveness, your mercy, and your presence know no end. So we step away from communion refreshed and reminded that your cup is always full and always available. Amen.

*CLOSING HYMN

There Is a Line of Women

John Bell

Tune: CLIMBING VINE

Charlene Nafziger

There is a line of women extending back to Eve,
Whose role in shaping hist'ry God only could conceive.
And though, through endless ages their witness was repressed,
God valued and encouraged them through whom the world was blest.
So sing a song of Sarah, to laughter she gave birth;
And sing a song of Tamar who stood for women's worth;
And sing a song of Hannah who bargained with her Lord;
And sing a song of Mary who bore and bred God's Word.

There is a line of women who took on pow'ful men,
Defying laws and scruples to let life live again.
And though, despite their triumph, their stories stayed untold
God kept their number growing creative, strong, and bold.
So sing a song of Shiphrah with Puah at her hand,
Engaged to kill male children they foiled the king's command.
And sing a song of Rahab who sheltered spies and lied;
And sing a song of Esther, preventing genocide.

There is a line of women who stood by Jesus' side,
Who housed him while he ministered and held him when he died.
And though they claimed he'd risen, their news was deemed suspect
Till Jesus stood among them, his womanly elect.
So sing a song of anna who saw Christ's infant face;
And sing a song of Martha who gave him food and space;
And sing of all the Marys who heeded his requests,
And now at heaven's banquet are Jesus' fondest guests.

Lent Devotional Study – “This Is My Body” – After Worship (about 11:20am)

We are happy to announce a devotional study for all ages during Lent, through Palm Sunday, March 24.

Each week highlights a different story from Jesus’ life and connects it to shared human experiences – like growing up, taking naps, or drinking water. By engaging with these stories through a broad lens of embodiment, This Is My Body seeks to inspire curiosity, wonder, and awe.

The booklets for adults or families are NOW AVAILABLE FOR FREE in print or PDF format. Print copies may be found on the large narthex table. The download link for the Families booklet is

Time to Order Easter Flowers!

During Easter we enjoy having our sanctuary beautifully decorated with a variety of beautiful spring flowers. You are invited to make a contribution to defray this expense. A donation of $20.00 is suggested. You may also like to designate your contribution in celebration, honor or memory. We hold many in our hearts especially during the Easter season as we celebrate the hope and joy of the season. This is a lovely way to show those feelings. The flowers will be available for pickup after Easter Sunday. Come early for flower selection! (Or you may donate a flower to one of our home bound members.)

Order your flowers online at <http://tinyurl.com/fccwg-easter-flowers> or pick up a form in the narthex.

The Giving Tree

We're excited about the Gala of Grace: A Night of Giving & Gratitude. We hope that you are planning to be part of this exciting event on April 6.

This year, we will have the Giving Tree. Yes, it's a tree with gifts that you can purchase. Right now, we are looking for folks who would like to contribute a gift or service that can be sold on the Giving Tree. For example, if you love to bake, perhaps you can bake something or if you are handy around the house, you may want to donate a couple of hours of service. These items will be bought from the Giving Tree at the Gala, and the recipients will let you know when they would like their gift. Please see Nancy Rudolph or Jeanene Harris with your contribution.

Thank you and we look forward to seeing you.

“Gala of Grace” — A Night of Giving and Gratitude Saturday, April 6th

Please be sure to pick up an invitation this morning and register for this exciting upcoming event where we will raise money to support local charities and ministries. "Gala of Grace: A Night of Giving & Gratitude" is your opportunity to attend a dazzling event featuring a multi-course dinner, live music and a live auction hosted by the legendary Rod Cooper. Don't miss this once in a lifetime event to treat yourself, while helping those in need.

Quilt Auction a Success!

Thank to everyone that helped to make the quilt auction event happen! We raised $4,016 and have four quilts left to sell at a future date. It was an interesting undertaking and I think we created a conducive setting. Best to you all and thanks again.

Peter Kalulu and Lawrence Katumba Coming April 7 to Adult Ed at 11:20 in Memorial Hall

Public Health program. They are both from Uganda and plan to return to their country to implement their training. Peter is from northern Uganda and promotes global health equity and accessibility for vulnerable populations. He strives to provide clean and safe water, and good sanitation to rural communities.

Lawrence comes from Kampala, the capital city of Uganda. He is a Ugandan health worker specializing in emergency medicine. At Washington University, he specialized in epidemiology and biostatistics. Before coming to Wash University, he joined Peter and the team to improve rural communities' health by providing clean and safe water, and a project on reducing malnutrition, through food banks in Uganda.

Come to learn about their projects and their plans when they return to their country. They are truly remarkable men and how lucky we are to have them part of our congregation during their Washington University study.

FROM THE PASTOR

"This Is My Body"

While they were eating, he took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it he broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take; this is my body." (Mark 14:22)

This passage, taken from the last meal Jesus ate which Christians remember was Passover seder, drips with poignancy as the rabbi speaks a symbolic farewell to his disciples. But this otherwise mundane act affirms the solidarity of our God with us.

The Lenten Devotional booklet, This Is My Body, which we are studying now, offers the observation, "Sometimes the weakness of our flesh is also a kind of wisdom. Sometimes the brokenness of our bodies is also a kind of blessedness." Here, at the table of the Last Supper, the Child of God acknowledges the way in which his own body is about to be broken.

And he will, thereafter, only be experienced bearing the wounds he received in earthly life. Even Paul, who will only ever know Christ spiritually, will be confronted by his Savior demanding, "Why do you persecute me?" (Acts 9:4) Paul would not remember the Christ asking, "Why do you persecute the church?" We may therefore presume that Jesus so identifies with those who are suffering, he takes the pain personally (cf. Matthew 25:41-43).

This month, as we recall the institution of the sacrament of Christ's Table and all the events that ensued, as we collect the offering for "One Great Hour of Sharing" on March 10 and prepare for our "Gala of Grace" on April 6, I hope that all of us may be re-membering Christ's manifestation among us and seeking by God's grace to embody Christ for others.

For we are a Resurrection People, renewed even in our weakness and our brokenness for the sake of others and for our world.

Peace.

WORSHIP NOTES FOR MARCH 2024

This schedule is subject to change, as need may arise.

All worship services noted below will be offered in person and live streamed (bit.ly/FCCWG-YT), at 10:00am on Sundays, except Maundy Thursday and Good Friday.

— Prayers and other parts of the liturgy during the season of Lent will pick up on the theme for each week in our Lenten study, This Is My Body. —

SUNDAY, MARCH 3 – Third Sunday in Lent; UCC Women’s Week; Sacrament of Christ’s Table; All Ages Worship.

– Focus of This Is My Body: the significance of water. –

Scriptures for March 3: 1 Corinthians 1:18-25; John 2:13-22. Jesus speaks what sounds like foolishness to those who confront him for upsetting the business of the Temple. Paul observes that “God’s foolishness is wiser than human wisdom.” Let’s consider what sort of foolishness the Spirit is inviting us to participate in. Message of the Day: “The Outlaw God”

SUNDAY, MARCH 10 – Fourth Sunday in Lent; “One Great Hour of Sharing” Special Offering (benefits Church World Service).

– Focus of This Is My Body: how different people’s behaviors can be. –

Scriptures for March 10: Ephesians 2:1-10; John 3:14-21. As Daylight Saving Time begins again, and we draw together offerings to benefit Church World Service, we cross some pretty familiar ground, scripture-wise. The reading from John includes that familiar passage beginning with “For God so loved the world...” The words from Ephesians consider us once “dead through our trespasses, made... alive together with Christ.” Familiar and formulaic-sounding, perhaps, these passages also abound with promise for who we may become, if we are just willing to risk our dignity as Jesus did. Message of the Day: “Positively Vulnerable”

SUNDAY, MARCH 17 – Fifth Sunday in Lent; St. Patrick’s Day; Jazz Worship.

– Focus of This Is My Body: “hangry” versus compassionate. –

Scriptures for March 17: Jeremiah 31:31-34; Hebrews 5:5-10; John 12:20-33. The Oikos Ensemble joins us as we consider the underlying reality (glory) of our existence, and what this can mean for our interaction with the world we can perceive with our senses. Message of the Day: “A Sixth Sense”

SUNDAY, MARCH 24 – Palm/Passion Sunday

– Focus of This Is My Body: being present, blessed and broken (Weeks 6 & 7). –

Scriptures for March 24: Psalm 118:1-2, 19-29; Mark 11:1-11; Mark 14-15. After a jubilant opening, Jesus’ pilgrimage to Jerusalem went sour, and then things got as bad as they could go. After our own rejoicing with children and the blessing of palms, four worship leaders recall for us the events of Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of Holy Week. Message of the Day: “The Passion According to Mark”

MAUNDY THURSDAY, MARCH 28, 7:00PM in the William E. Sample Chapel with Sts. Clare & Francis Ecumenical Catholic Communion – A service of footwashing, anointing, and communion.

GOOD FRIDAY, MARCH 29, 7:00PM – Good Friday Blues: Jazz Lament.

Christian churches across America have difficulty with lament. It doesn’t “sell” the way that exuberance does. The Oikos Ensemble and friends return to our familiar setting for lament. Using Tenebrae (the Service of Shadows) as the motif, we will reflect on the conditions that led to Jesus’ crucifixion compared with conditions of suffering and pain in our own times.

SUNDAY, MARCH 31 – Easter/Resurrection Sunday

Scriptures for March 31: Psalm 118:1-2, 14-24; 1 Corinthians 15:1-11; Mark 16:1-8. The lament ends: our prayers are answered. Christ is risen! This service will include a brass
